

Volunteer Agreement

To respect others

- To attend Brentford Toy Library play sessions and meetings at agreed times and to take responsibility for notifying the appropriate people as soon as possible if you are unable to make this time.
- To value all those around you and treat them with politeness and respect.
- To show empathy and understanding to the children, their parents/carers, volunteers and others who you might come into contact with whilst volunteering for the Brentford Toy Library

To respect the organisation

To complete the organisation's induction and abide by their policies and practises.

- To perform agreed tasks and duties to the best of your abilities.

To respect yourself

- To
- To be aware of your rights as a volunteer and to voice these if you feel that it is necessary- see your Volunteer Rights and Responsibilities booklet.

Name..... Signed.....